GARMENTS TRADING

Uniforms that reflect the standard you stand for

Professional uniforms and work footwear for government, semi-government and private institutions.

QUALITY IN EVERY DETAIL

A considered approach to fabric, fit and service.

OUR COMPANY

A professional presence

Your uniform is part of how your organisation is seen. We help make that impression count.

At TWL Garments Trading, we supply uniforms and work footwear for organisations that value a polished appearance, practical comfort and attentive service. Our range brings together corporate tailoring, everyday staff apparel, medical uniforms and commercial workwear.

We aim to give every client a product they can be proud to put on their team. From fabric selection to the finished garment, our focus is on quality that feels right, looks professional and suits the demands of the role.

Our purpose

To help organisations present a consistent, confident identity through well-chosen uniforms and footwear.

Our commitment

High standards of product quality, clear communication and personal attention throughout the supply process.

Our approach

Understand the workplace, define the requirement and recommend a suitable product range with care.

OUR PRODUCT RANGE

Uniforms for every role

A versatile collection for front-of-house presentation, clinical environments and demanding daily operations.

Suits and corporate uniforms

Professional suits in a choice of fabrics, with coordinated shirts for office teams, management, reception and client-facing roles.

Shirts and everyday team apparel

Long-sleeve and short-sleeve shirts and T-shirts, selected around your preferred appearance, working environment and staff requirements.

Scrubs and medical apparel

Scrub sets and medical uniforms for clinical and support teams, with attention to fit, movement and a clean, professional appearance.

Coveralls and commercial workwear

Coveralls for medical and commercial requirements, alongside uniforms for workshops, construction sites and operational teams. Product selection follows the intended use.

Foreman and construction footwear

Work shoes and boots for foremen, construction personnel and operational teams, selected to suit the role and agreed footwear specification.

Fabric, colour, sizing and any specialist performance requirements are confirmed for each order. Medical protective garments and safety footwear require product-specific suitability and compliance checks.

THE TWL STANDARD

Quality with purpose

We believe a strong uniform programme combines the right product with a responsive, professional service.

Fabric chosen for the job

We consider the working environment, preferred feel, appearance and care requirements when discussing fabric options.

Fit that supports the working day

A professional appearance should work alongside ease of movement. We give sizing and role requirements the attention they deserve.

Consistency across your team

Coordinated colours, garment choices and agreed specifications help create a recognisable organisational identity.

Attention to the finished product

Fabric, stitching, finishing and presentation are central to the quality standard we seek in the products we supply.

Service that values the relationship

Whether you are a new client or returning for your next order, our aim is to provide clear advice, attentive follow-up and a dependable point of contact.

WORKING WITH TWL

Your next uniform programme

Tell us what your teams need. We will help shape a clear, practical supply proposal.

01 Define the requirement

Share your sectors, staff roles, quantities, preferred styles and intended use.

02 Select the products

Discuss fabrics, garment types, colours, size requirements and suitable footwear options.

03 Agree the specification

Confirm the product details, any sample requirements, pricing and delivery arrangements before proceeding.

04 Plan the next order

Discuss repeat requirements and future team needs to support continuity as your organisation grows.

Request a tailored quotation

Send your uniform list, quantities and required delivery date to your TWL representative for a proposal built around your organisation.
